DECLARATION OF THOMAS A. ZIMMERMAN, JR.

I, Thomas A. Zimmerman, Jr., hereby declare as follows:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this Declaration and, if called to testify, I could and would testify to the matters stated herein.

2. I am the owner of Zimmerman Law Offices, P.C. (“ZLO”), and am one of the attorneys for the Plaintiffs in this matter.

Background and Experience of Thomas A. Zimmerman, Jr.

3. I am an attorney with extensive experience representing plaintiffs in class action litigation. I have particular expertise in handling class actions, such as the present case, alleging privacy violations. To demonstrate my qualifications, I will summarize my background and qualifications. I also refer the Court to the ZLO Firm Resume, which is attached as Exhibit 1.

4. I received my Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Illinois and my M.B.A. in Finance from DePaul University. I earned my law degree from the Chicago-Kent College of Law, where I was a Ramsey-Burke Scholarship recipient and earned the Academic Achievement Award.

5. I am a member in good standing of the Illinois State Bar and the bar of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. I am also admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth and Seventh Circuits, and various other federal district courts. Beyond this case, I have also been admitted pro hac vice and have appeared before trial courts in a number of different federal and state jurisdictions.

6. I have been a litigator for almost 24 years and I practice extensively and have obtained multi-million dollar jury verdicts in class action, corporate, commercial, medical malpractice, consumer fraud, general civil, product liability, toxic tort, and other complex litigation. I represent both plaintiffs and defendants nationwide in state and federal trial and appellate courts. I also represent individuals and corporations in transactional matters, and before state and federal administrative and regulatory agencies.

7. I have been lead counsel in national and statewide class action litigation, and have handled multi-party litigation involving such companies as MCI/Worldcom, United Airlines, Peoples Gas, AT&T, Warner-Lambert, Pfizer, Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., DaimlerChrysler, Commonwealth Edison, Ameritech, Bridgestone/Firestone, and ADT Corporation. I also represent physicians, dentists, nurses, psychologists, veterinarians, and many other licensed professionals before state and federal agencies including the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation, and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

8. In 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020, I was selected as a Super Lawyer in the area of class action and mass torts.

9. In 2000, I was voted one of the Top 40 Illinois Attorneys Under the Age of 40. This is especially notable, as I was chosen out of 60,000 attorneys in Illinois under the age of forty.

10. In 2003, the Illinois Supreme Court appointed me to the Review Board of the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission (“ARDC”). I served in that capacity until 2011, wherein I presided over appeals by attorneys who have been found to have committed misconduct, and recommended discipline for their ethical violations. In 2013, the ARDC appointed me as Special Counsel, wherein I conduct independent investigations in matters involving allegations of misconduct against attorneys associated with the ARDC.

11. Additionally, the Illinois Governor appointed me to the Illinois Courts Commission. A Commission member presides over proceedings wherein judges are charged with committing ethical violations, and imposes discipline on judges who are found to have engaged in misconduct.

12. I have served as class counsel or on the plaintiffs’ executive committee in dozens of nationwide and statewide class actions, including but not limited to the following actions:

- Misleading Product Claims — $62 million recovery for a nationwide class of customers who purchased products that were advertised to reduce cellulite in the human body, plus equitable relief to correct the misleading claims. *Joseph v. - Privacy Violation — $1 million recovery for a nationwide class of consumers whose personal information was improperly disclosed. Radaviciute v. Christian Audigier, Inc., No. 10 cv 8090 (N.D. Ill.).

13. As demonstrated in numerous earlier class cases, my firm and I have litigated numerous class actions and we know of the legal and practical challenges associated with the prosecution of class claims, including such claims alleging privacy violations.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct and that this Declaration was executed this 13th day of August, 2020, at Chicago, Illinois.

Thomas A. Zimmerman, Jr.

Exhibit 1

ZIMMERMAN LAW OFFICES, P.C.

Since 1996, Zimmerman Law Offices has represented individuals and businesses in a wide array of legal matters. Its attorneys are established and respected trial lawyers who represent clients in complex litigation and class action lawsuits nationwide. The firm has an extensive and varied litigation-based practice, with a focus on class action litigation. Zimmerman Law Offices has recovered over $250 million on behalf of millions of individuals and businesses nationwide.

The attorneys at Zimmerman Law Offices are experienced in Multidistrict Litigation (MDL), having served as lead counsel in MDL cases throughout the country. These MDL cases included claims for fraud, improper pricing, misleading product claims, and privacy violations including data breaches.

ATTORNEYS

Thomas A. Zimmerman, Jr.

A seasoned litigator for over 24 years, Mr. Zimmerman practices extensively and has obtained multi-million dollar jury verdicts in class action, corporate, commercial, medical malpractice, consumer fraud, constitutional due process, general civil, product liability, toxic tort, and other complex litigation. He represents both plaintiffs and defendants nationwide in state and federal trial and appellate courts. He also represents individuals and corporations in transactional matters, and before state and federal administrative and regulatory agencies.

Mr. Zimmerman has been lead counsel in national and state-wide class action litigation, and has handled other multi-party litigation involving such companies as MCI/Worldcom, United Airlines, Peoples Gas, AT&T, Warner-Lambert, Pfizer, Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., DaimlerChrysler, ADT, Ford Motor Co., Mead Johnson, KCBX, Inland Bank, Commonwealth Edison, Ameritech, Wells Fargo, and Bridgestone/Firestone. He is well respected for his representation of physicians, dentists, nurses, psychologists, veterinarians, and many other licensed professionals before state and federal agencies including the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation, and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

In 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020, he was selected as a Super Lawyer in the area of class action and mass torts.

In 2000, he was voted one of the Top 40 Illinois Attorneys Under the Age of 40. This is especially notable, as he was chosen out of 60,000 attorneys in Illinois under the age of forty.

In 2003, the Illinois Supreme Court appointed Mr. Zimmerman to the Review Board of the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission ("ARDC"). He served in that capacity until 2011, wherein he presided over appeals by attorneys who have been found to have committed misconduct, and recommended discipline for their ethical violations. In 2013, the ARDC appointed Mr. Zimmerman as Special Counsel, wherein he conducts independent investigations in matters involving allegations of misconduct against attorneys associated with the ARDC.

Additionally, the Illinois Governor appointed Mr. Zimmerman to the Illinois Courts Commission in 2003. A Commission member presides over proceedings wherein judges are charged with committing ethical violations, and imposes discipline on judges who are found to have engaged in misconduct. Mr. Zimmerman has served as a Commission member continuously since his appointment.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Mr. Zimmerman worked for AT&T where he negotiated partnerships with companies for domestic and international joint-venture and new product development activities. During this time, he was the featured speaker at 400 conferences, seminars, and presentations. Thereafter, he presented oral testimony at various Federal Senate and Congressional hearings. After obtaining his law license, Mr. Zimmerman has lectured at law schools and seminars, and is frequently interviewed by the news media concerning legal issues.

Mr. Zimmerman earned a B.S. in Computer Science-Mathematics from the University of Illinois, and an M.B.A. in Finance from DePaul University in the evenings while working for AT&T. After leaving AT&T, Mr. Zimmerman earned his law degree from the Chicago-Kent College of Law, where he was a Ramsey-Burke Scholarship recipient and earned the Academic Achievement Award.

He is admitted to practice law in Illinois, and other states on a case-by-case basis, and he is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, and various federal courts of appeal and federal district courts. Based on his demonstrated experience and ability, he was appointed to the federal court trial bar.

Mr. Zimmerman is currently the chair of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County Attorney Advisory Committee, and was formerly co-chair of the Clerk of the Circuit Court Transition and Strategic Planning Public Policy Subcommittee.

Mr. Zimmerman is a member of the American, Illinois State, and Chicago Bar Associations, and the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, where he serves on various committees. He is also a member of the American Association for Justice. In 2000, he was appointed to the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association Board of Advocates.

Involved in numerous community service activities, Mr. Zimmerman has been an Illinois State Board of Education surrogate parent of disabled children since 1988. In addition, he was a speaker on the rights of disabled people for the Illinois Planning Council on Developmental Disabilities, and a Family Shelter Service counselor to battered children for many years. He has been recognized by the federal court for his pro bono representation of indigent clients.

Sharon A. Harris

Ms. Harris has extensive experience litigating complex class action matters in state and federal trial and appellate courts nationwide. She has focused her practice on consumer protection, product liability, privacy, and antitrust matters. Ms. Harris has developed a particular expertise in state unfair and deceptive practice statutes, data breach laws, privacy laws, federal antitrust laws, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO), the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, and various other federal and state laws. She has been appointed class counsel in numerous cases. For example, she was appointed one of class counsel in In re Pilot Flying J Fuel Rebate Contract Litigation, which involved allegations that the defendants violated RICO and various state laws by withholding portions of fuel discounts and rebates to which class members were contractually entitled. A settlement was granted final approval. Ms. Harris was also appointed class counsel in a class action lawsuit, Norton, et al. v. Niantic, Inc., No. 2017 CH 10281 (Cir. Ct. Cook Cty., Ill.), and helped negotiate a $1.75 million settlement on behalf of attendees at the 2017 Pokémon GO Fest in Chicago that were unable to play the game during the fest due to technical and other issues. Additionally, Ms. Harris was appointed class counsel in a class action lawsuit, Miller, et al. v. Inteleos, Inc., No. 1:17-cv-00763-DAP (N.D. Ohio), on behalf of individuals who took a Registered Vascular Technology (RVT) examination and passed the examination but received an incorrect failing score. The settlement she helped negotiate was granted final approval by the Court.

She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Michigan State University with a dual major in Political Science and Social Science. Ms. Harris received her law degree from DePaul University College of Law. She is a member of the American, Illinois State, and Chicago Bar Associations. She is admitted to practice in the State of Illinois, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Indiana, and the United States Courts of Appeals for the Seventh and Ninth Circuits.

Matthew C. De Re

Mr. De Re advocates for both plaintiffs and defendants nationwide in state and federal trial and appellate courts. His practice areas include class action, corporate, commercial, consumer fraud, general civil, product liability, personal injury, and other complex litigation. He also represents professionals, such as physicians, dentists, nurses, insurance producers, and real estate brokers, before state and federal agencies, including the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation and the Department of Insurance. In addition to his extensive litigation practice, Mr. De Re assists individuals and corporations in transactional matters.

He has experience in all phases of litigation, including extensive discovery and substantive motion practice. He has assisted in the defense of individuals and companies in cases involving personal injury, employment, and civil rights. Mr. De Re has also vigorously pursued recovery for plaintiffs in numerous civil matters. Prior to joining Zimmerman Law Offices, he served as a Law Clerk for the Circuit Court of Cook County.

Mr. De Re graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a B.S. in both Political Science and History. He earned his law degree from Washington University in St. Louis. While in law school, he received academic awards and appeared on the Dean's List multiple times. He also served two years on the Executive Board of the Student Bar Association and was the Associate Managing Editor for the Washington University Journal of Law & Policy.

He is admitted to practice law in the State of Illinois and is a member of the Illinois State and Chicago Bar Associations.

Jeffrey D. Blake

Mr. Blake represents consumers in class actions involving unfair and deceptive trade practices, privacy violations, antitrust matters, and defective products. He has considerable experience prosecuting complex cases in state and federal courts throughout the nation, including appeals.

Mr. Blake received his J.D., cum laude, from the Chicago-Kent College of Law in 2012. While attending, Mr. Blake served as Executive Articles Editor for the Chicago-Kent Law Review, spent a semester as a judicial extern for the Honorable Samuel Der-Yeghiayan of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, and participated in the Intellectual Property Law Clinic and the Center for Open Government.

After graduating law school, Mr. Blake served as the judicial law clerk for the Honorable Patrick McKay, Superior Court Judge for the Third Judicial District in Anchorage, Alaska.

Mr. Blake received a Bachelor of Science from the University of Illinois at Chicago.

He is admitted to practice in the State of Illinois and the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

Jordan M. Rudnick (of counsel)

Mr. Rudnick represents individuals and large national and international companies in providing business advice, counsel and dispute resolution in a wide variety of contexts for almost 20 years. In particular, Mr. Rudnick represents plaintiffs and defendants nationwide in class action, corporate, commercial, consumer fraud, general civil, and other complex litigation in state and federal courts, arbitrations, and mediations. Mr. Rudnick has been involved in all phases of litigation, including extensive discovery, substantive motion practice, trials and appeals.

His experience as an attorney also includes representing parties in nationwide securities fraud class actions. Notably, Mr. Rudnick represented Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce in the Enron class action securities litigation and related proceedings. He also has extensive experience representing commercial policyholders in recovering insurance proceeds from their insurers.

Mr. Rudnick serves as an arbitrator for FINRA (Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, formerly known as the NASD or National Association of Securities Dealers) where he and panels of two other arbitrators decide the outcome of disputes between investors and securities brokers and dealers.

He has provided extensive pro bono representation of improperly-expelled school children in conjunction with the Legal Assistance Foundation of Metropolitan Chicago, and with the Chicago Coalition for the Homeless. In addition, in his spare time, he is a volunteer at the Lincoln Park Community Homeless Shelter.

Mr. Rudnick served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Justice Joseph Gordon, Illinois Appellate Court, 1st District, where he drafted opinions in appeals arising from complex civil and criminal trial court decisions.

Mr. Rudnick earned his B.A. in Political Science from the University of Chicago, and he graduated cum laude from the John Marshall Law School with honors and on a full scholarship. In law school, he appeared on the Dean's List, and he was a member of the school's Moot Court Team. He also was a Staff Editor on the John Marshall Law Review for two years.

He is admitted to practice law in Illinois, New York, and Washington, D.C., and is a member of the Chicago Bar Association, NAACP, and ACLU.
